WHOLESALE ACCOUNT TERMS & CONDITIONS

PAYMENT TERMS

RC Trees wholesale accounts are established for qualified trade customers and do not constitute an extension of credit. Unless otherwise expressly agreed to by RC Trees in writing, payment is due at the time of purchase and/or prior to release or delivery of material.

Customer remains responsible for the full amount of all purchases if any check, ACH payment, electronic payment, credit or debit card transaction, or other form of payment is returned, rejected, dishonored, stopped, disputed, reversed, or otherwise not successfully collected. Customer agrees to pay all lawful returned-payment charges and reasonable costs incurred by RC Trees in collecting unpaid amounts, including collection agency costs and reasonable attorneys' fees, to the extent permitted by applicable law. Purchases made by individuals authorized by Customer are obligations of Customer.

DELIVERY, PICKUP & ACCEPTANCE

Any employee, representative, independent driver, trucking company, freight broker, carrier, or other transportation provider arranged or authorized by Customer to pick up material is authorized to receive and accept the material on Customer's behalf, whether or not they are an employee of Customer.

Customer or its authorized representative is responsible for inspecting all material at pickup. Any visible shortage, discrepancy, damage, or unacceptable material must be reported before the material leaves RC Trees. Once material leaves RC Trees, it is deemed received and accepted by Customer.

LIVE PLANT MATERIAL

Trees and plant material are living products. Once accepted and removed from RC Trees, Customer is responsible for transportation, handling, planting, irrigation, and care. RC Trees is not responsible for damage, deterioration, or loss occurring after the material leaves the nursery unless otherwise agreed in writing.

SALES TAX / RESALE CERTIFICATE

Customers claiming exemption from Florida sales tax are responsible for providing RC Trees with a current and valid Florida Annual Resale Certificate and for notifying RC Trees of any change, expiration, suspension, or revocation. Applicable sales tax may be charged when a valid resale certificate is not on file.

CUSTOMER ACKNOWLEDGMENT & AGREEMENT

I certify that the information provided in this Wholesale Account Application is true and accurate. I represent that I am authorized to establish this wholesale account and enter into this agreement on behalf of the business identified above. By signing below, Customer acknowledges that it has read, understands, and agrees to the RC Trees Wholesale Account Terms & Conditions contained in this application.
